During the last two months Lauren continued to inspire and intrigue the children and adults with her innovative ideas. For the kids, Kids Crafts day on Mondays. Nov. was Fairy making. Dec. was snow flake and garland making. The projects will decorate the library or be taken home. The children will also add to the gnome garden in the library.

For the adults there is, Adult Craft time on Wednesdays at 4 PM. These include; knitting, crocheting, sewing, paper work and more. Tuesdays are reserved for the HOB series The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency. This will be shown at the home of Leigh Fosberry, 51 Shedd Hill Rd. at 2:30 PM.

With the move out of state by the VanKuren's, the computer upgrade has stalled. Dick Scofield will check with area vendors(such as Staples) to see what can be done to improve our library's computers. Time is of the essence since our checkout computer is on its last legs.

Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as corrected.

Corrections. Bob English should be Bob Englund. The word Pare should be Pair. Lastly, Charlotte Guyette should be Charlotte Guyer.
